

Elise Letourneau - bio blurb - September 2023 [95 words]

Elise Letourneau is a multiple award-winning composer, and an accomplished songwriter, multi-instrumentalist performer, arranger, producer, and educator.

An associate composer of the Canadian Music Centre, her works blur the lines between classical, jazz, and popular music, and have been performed around the globe.

Elise directs Voices Rock Medicine (Ottawa), a choir for female physicians. She teaches at Alcorn Music Studios. She performs as a solo artist, with The Fieldown Singers, and with Glamour Profession (a Steely Dan tribute band).

Elise is a graduate of Berklee College of Music (Boston MA).

www.eliseletourneau.com